Regina Alpine Adaptive Report

Program for 2020-21

- Limited program was held last season due to Covid-19. We conducted 3 event days with our visually impaired participants.
- We did train 1 volunteer as a guide for Joshua Schramm.
- Joshua trained with the Regina Alpine Race Team but had limited days due to transportation restrictions.
- We purchased a new Dynamique Bi Ski which will be delivered this November.

Program Plans for 2021-22

- Plan to have 6 event days at Mission Ridge for adaptive skiing and introduction to alpine skiing. See reginaskiclub.ca for dates
- Plan to have 2 mountain training camps 1 at Silver Star Dec 12-18th and a second at CADS Festival March 28 to April 1 /2022 at Sun Peaks.
- Plan to host SaskTel Challenge Cup Race at Mission Ridge in March 2022 Date to be confirmed.

Instructor Training 2021-22

- Regina Alpine Adaptive Program will be making instructor training a priority this season with 1 instructor completing his CADS level 3, and a second working towards his CADS level 3. Hope to get 2 volunteers trained as CADS level 1 instructors.

Para Athletes 2021-22

- Joshua Schramm plans to continue alpine ski racing with the RART and train with Rocky Mountain Adaptive in Canmore.
- Kurt Oatway continues to be part of the Canadian Para Alpine Team and has been recently training in Europe and summer training in Whistler. He will be racing at the Panorama World Cup Race Nov 26-28, 2021

Paralympic Games March 4-13th, 2022

- Kurt Oatway will be representing Canada and Saskatchewan at the Beijing, China.
- We ask all Clubs to watch and to cheer Kurt on to another Gold Medal finish.

Canada Winter Games Feb 2023

- Joshua Schramm plans to represent Saskatchewan at the 2023 Canada Winter Games in PEI
- Request that other clubs actively look for para alpine skiers in their clubs or communities as we will not be filling the para alpine quota for athletes.
